

Vale informa sobre afastamento temporário de executivos

A Vale S.A. (Vale) informa que, ao final de sexta-feira, 01.03.19, seu Conselho de Administração recebeu do Ministério Público Federal, do Ministério Público do Estado de Minas Gerais, da Polícia Federal e da Polícia Civil do Estado de Minas Gerais a Recomendação nº 11/2019 com considerações e recomendações sobre afastamento de alguns executivos e colaboradores nos diversos níveis organizacionais da companhia.

O Conselho manteve reuniões durante a noite de sexta-feira 01.03.19 e a manhã de sábado, 02.03.19, incluindo interações com executivos da companhia. Durante as suas discussões, o Conselho recebeu, dos próprios executivos Fabio Schvartsman (Diretor-Presidente), Gerd Peter Poppinga (Diretor-Executivo de Ferrosos e Carvão), Lucio Flavio Gallon Cavalli (Diretor de Planejamento e Desenvolvimento de Ferrosos e Carvão) e Silmar Magalhães Silva (Diretor de Operações do Corredor Sudeste), os pedidos de afastamento temporário de suas funções, que foram imediatamente aceitos.

O Conselho de Administração acionou então o plano de interinidade previamente discutido: nomear Eduardo de Salles Bartolomeo (atual Diretor-Executivo de Metais Básicos) como Diretor-Presidente interino da Vale a partir desta data. Claudio de Oliveira Alves (atual Diretor de Pelotização e Manganês) ocupará interinamente a função de Diretor-Executivo de Ferrosos e Carvão e Mark Travers (atual Diretor Jurídico, de Relações Institucionais e Sustentabilidade de Metais Básicos) ocupará interinamente a função de Diretor-Executivo de Metais Básicos.

A Vale informa também que seu Conselho de Administração permanece em prontidão, na busca de um relacionamento transparente e produtivo com as autoridades brasileiras visando o esclarecimento dos fatos, a reparação apropriada dos danos e a integridade da empresa e que manterá a sociedade e os mercados informados sobre qualquer fato novo.

Vale on temporary removal of its Executives

Rio de Janeiro, March 2nd, 2019 – Vale S.A. (“Vale”) informs that, at the end of Friday, March 1st 2019, its Board of Directors received from the Federal Public Prosecution Office (Ministério Público Federal), the Public Prosecution Office of the State of Minas Gerais (Ministério Público do Estado de Minas Gerais), the Federal Police and the Civil Police of Minas Gerais the Recommendation No. 11/2019 with considerations and recommendations on the dismissal of some executives and employees at various levels of the company.

Vale’s Board of Directors held meetings during Friday night, March 1st, 2019 and Saturday morning, March 2nd, 2019, including interactions with the company’s executives. During these discussions, the Board received from the executives Fábio Schvartsman (CEO), Gerd Peter Poppinga (Executive Director of Ferrous and Coal), Lucio Flavio Gallon Cavalli (Head of Planning and Development of Ferrous and Coal) and Silmar Magalhães Silva (Head of Operations of the Southeast Corridor), requests for temporary removal from office, which were immediately accepted.

The Board of Directors then initiated the interim succession plan previously discussed: to appoint Eduardo de Salles Bartolomeo (currently Executive Director of Base Metals) as the interim CEO of Vale as of this date. Claudio de Oliveira Alves (current Head of Pellet and Manganese) will hold the interim position of Executive Director of Ferrous and Coal and Mark Travers (Head of Legal, Institutional Relations and Sustainability of Base Metals), will hold the interim position of Executive Director of Base Metals.

Vale also informs that its Board of Directors remains in readiness to seek a transparent and productive relationship with the Brazilian authorities in order to clarify the facts, to properly remediate the damages and to maintain the company’s integrity, and that will keep society and markets informed about any new fact.
