2 Elaboration and presentation of consolidated interim financial statements

The authorization for completion of these consolidated interim financial statements was given at the Board of Directors' meeting held on May 13, 2010.

First-time adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

The consolidated interim financial statements for the three months period ended on March 31, 2010 are in conformity with IFRS 1 - First-time adoption of IFRS.

IFRS 1 - First-time adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) requires an entity to develop accounting policies based on IASB standards and interpretations in effect at the date of the first IFRS consolidated interim financial statements. Thus, as of March 31, 2010, IFRS 1 also requires that such policies be applied at the date of transition to IFRS and over all periods covered by the first IFRS financial statements.

For purposes of preparation and publication of the financial statements using the IFRSs, the transition date was considered January 1, 2009, which is the start date for measurement and disclosures of the Company and its subsidiaries.

JBS S.A.

Notes to the consolidated interim financial statements for the three months period ended March 31, 2010 and 2009
(Expressed in thousands of Brazilian reais)

The consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss.

In accordance with IAS 1- Presentation of financial statements, the Company's consolidated interim financial statements include:

- i) Balance sheet;
- ii) Statement of operations;
- iii) Statement of comprehensive income, as an integral part of the notes to the financial statements;
- iv) Statement of changes in shareholders' equity;
- v) Statement of cash flows;
- vi) Notes to the financial statements.

Additionally, as a market practice, the Company discloses in notes to the financial statements the Statement of Value Added as supplemental information with a view to providing further details to the users of the financial statements.

3 Significant accounting practices

The main accounting practices used in the preparation of these interim consolidated financial statements, as described below, have been consistently applied all over the reported periods and years, unless otherwise stated.

The consolidated interim financial statements of the Company have been prepared and are presented in accordance with the IFRS issued by the International Accounting Standards Board – IASB. The main differences between BRGAAP and IFRS, including reconciliation of shareholders' equity and comprehensive income, are described in note 4.

The consolidated interim financial statements of the Company were prepared and presented in accordance with accounting practices generally accepted in Brazil ("BRGAAP"), based on provisions of the Brazilian Corporate Law and standards issued by the Brazilian Securities Commission until December 31, 2009 and these practices differ, in some respects, from IFRS.

On the preparation of the consolidated interim financial statements for the three months period ended on March 31, 2010, the Company adjusted certain accounting methods so as to harmonize them with IFRS. The data relating to 2009 (December 31, 2009, March 31, 2009 and January 31, 2009) were restated to reflect these adjustments, except for those described in exemption from optional and mandatory accounting practices in note 4.

a) Profit and loss calculation

Revenue and expenses are recorded on the accrual basis. Revenue includes the fair value of the payment received or receivable for sale of products and services in the normal course of business.

Revenue is net of taxes, returns, rebates and discounts, as well as of intercompany sales. Revenue is recognized when the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer.

The Company recognizes revenue when, and only when:

- (i) the amount of revenue can be measured reliably;
- (ii) it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company; and
- (iii) specific criteria for each activity of the Company and its subsidiaries have been met. The amount of revenue is not considered reliably measurable until all contingencies related to the sale have been transferred to the buyer. The Company's estimates are based on historical data, considering the type of customer, type of transaction and specifications of each sale.

b) Accounting estimates

The preparation of consolidated interim financial statements requires management to adopt assumptions and exercise its judgment in determining and recording accounting estimates. Significant estimates include the useful life of property, plant and equipment, allowance for doubtful accounts, inventories, deferred tax assets, provision for contingencies and valuation of derivative instruments. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

c) Financial instruments

The Company and its subsidiaries record derivatives in accordance with IAS 39 - Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement and IFRIC 9 - Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives. Financial instruments are recognized on the balance sheet only when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of these instruments. A financial asset or liability is initially recognized at fair value, plus transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue.

In case of financial assets and liabilities classified in the category of financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs are directly posted to profit or loss.

Subsequent measurement of financial instruments occurs at each balance sheet date, according to the rules for each category of financial assets and liabilities: (i) assets and liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss, (ii) held to maturity, (iii) loans and receivables (iv) available for sale.

JBS S.A.

Notes to the consolidated interim financial statements for the three months period ended March 31, 2010 and 2009
(Expressed in thousands of Brazilian reais)

d) Allowance for doubtful accounts

Allowance for doubtful accounts is recorded in an amount considered sufficient to cover probable losses on accounts receivable.

The allowance for doubtful accounts expense was recorded under the caption "Operating Expenses" in the consolidated statement of operations. When no additional recovery is expected, the allowance for doubtful accounts is usually reversed against the definitive write-off of the account receivable.

e) Inventories

Inventories are stated at average cost of acquisition or production, not in excess of market or realizable value. The cost of inventories is recognized in income when inventories are sold.

f) Investments

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for using the equity method.

g) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical acquisition cost, plus revaluations carried out on different dates until December 31, 2007 for a significant portion of property, plant and equipment items, based upon specialists' report. All revaluations are made based on depreciation or sale of revalued assets.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method, based on the estimated useful lives of the assets at the annual rates mentioned in Note 12.

h) Intangible assets

Intangible assets are stated at acquisition cost, less amortization. Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are not amortized but tested for impairment annually.

i) Impairment

Property, plant and equipment, intangible assets, deferred charges and other assets (current and noncurrent) are tested for impairment at least annually, if indications of potential impairment exist. Goodwill and intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment on an annual basis, regardless of whether or not there is any indication of impairment, pursuant to IAS 38 - Intangible Assets.

j) Other current and noncurrent assets

Other current and noncurrent assets are stated at cost or realizable value including, if applicable, income earned through the balance sheet date.

k) Current and noncurrent liabilities

Current and noncurrent liabilities are stated at known or estimated amounts, including, if applicable, charges and monetary or exchange variations.

l) Contingent assets and liabilities

Contingent assets are recognized only when their realization is virtually certain, based on favorable final judicial decision. Contingent assets are disclosed where an inflow of economic benefits is probable.

Contingent liabilities are accrued when losses are probable and the amounts can be estimated reliably. Contingent liabilities classified as possible are only disclosed and contingent liabilities classified as remote are neither accrued nor disclosed.

m) Income tax and social contributionCurrent taxes

Inventories: Difference between USGAAP and IAS relating to finished products. Under US GAAP, finished products are carried at market value. This difference in accounting practice resulted in an adjustment of R$ 13,860 to Cost of Products Sold, relating to current year. Additionally, there was an adjustment of R$ 112,765 to Retained Earnings, relating to the prior year.

Deferred taxes: Due to the difference in accounting practices mentioned above, the Company determined deferred taxes, with effects on income in the amount of R$ 5,302 (FY 2010) and on retained earnings in the amount of R$ 43,133 (prior years), respectively, relative to the GAAP adjustments.

In the present value calculation adjustment the Company considered the following assumptions: (i) the amount to be discounted; (ii) the dates of realization and settlement; and (iii) the discount rate.

The discount rate assumption relies on current market valuations as to time value of money and specific risks for each asset and liability.

r) Foreign currency translationFunctional and reporting currency

The items of the consolidated interim financial statements of the subsidiaries are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the subsidiaries operate ("functional currency"). The Company's functional currency is the Real (R$).

However, the amount of dividends higher than the mandatory minimum dividend, declared after the period covered by the consolidated interim financial statements but before the date of authorization for release of the consolidated interim financial statements, is recorded under the caption "Proposed Additional Dividends" in shareholders' equity, with a disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.

Biological assets

Pursuant to IAS 41 – Biological Asset, companies engaging in agricultural activities, such as grain growing, cattle raising and other shall measure their assets at fair value at least at end of quarters or years, included in profit or loss. However, if there is no active market, as it is the case of JBS USA Holdings, the standard provides guidance for choosing one or more of the following measurement bases:

- the market price of the most recent transaction, considering that no significant economic change had occurred between the date of the transaction and the closing of the interim consolidated financial statements;
- market price of similar assets with adjustments to reflect any difference; and
- industry standards, such as the value of orchard expressed by the value of standard packing for export, acres or hectares, and the value of cattle expressed per kilogram of meat or arroba.

JBS S.A.

Notes to the consolidated interim financial statements for the three months period ended March 31, 2010 and 2009
(Expressed in thousands of Brazilian reais)

There is an assumption that the fair value of biological assets can be measured reliably. However, this assumption can be rejected in case of biological assets whose value should be determined by the market, but this is not available and the alternatives for estimating them are clearly not reliable. In such situations, the biological asset should be measured at cost less depreciation and any accumulated impairment loss

As mentioned, part of the biological assets of the company JBS USA Holdings will not be valued at market, adopting the procedures of recovery by absorption costing for the following reasons:

Poultry – Pilgrim's Pride Corporation is engaged in the poultry activity, however, due to the "maturation" period, which covers the period between the egg until the time of slaughter, is less than 45 days;

Pork and Lamb - The unit of JBS in Australia keeps pigs and lambs in the feedlot system and there is no active market for such activities;

Cattle - The JBS unit in Australia keeps cattle in feedlot and there is no reliable active market because of its "age", since this is bovine cattle born for more than 180 days. However, the active market covers only bovine cattle between born between 75 and 100 days.

Below is the breakdown of the biological assets of the companies located in the United States, whose balances are measured at cost:

COMPANIES IN THE UNITED STATES	March 31, 2010	Dec 31, 2009	January 1, 2009

Total biological assets stated at cost	208.313	205.254	249.264

The transactions in the biological activities in Brazil are represented entirely by cattle in feedlot (intensive) and cattle grazing (extensive), which valuation the market is measured reliably because of the existence of active markets for same, as shown below:

Value-added tax on sales and services (ICMS / IVA / VAT)

Recoverable ICMS refers to excess of credits derived from purchases of raw materials, packaging and other materials over tax charges due on domestic sales, since exports are tax-exempted.

The above-mentioned tax credit is under examination and homologation by the Tax Authority of the State of São Paulo. The Company expects to recover the total amount of the tax credit, including the ICMS credits from other states (difference between the statutory rate for tax bookkeeping and the effective rate for ICMS collection in the state of origin), which are being challenged by the São Paulo State. However, the procedure adopted by the Company is supported by prevailing legislation, according to external and internal legal counsel.

Based on studies performed by the Company's management, supported by its legal counsel, the ICMS credits, amounting to R$ 320,000, were segregated in consolidation, according to their realization, from current to noncurrent, and were realized in the period ended 31 March 2010.

PIS and COFINS (social contribution on net income)

Refers to non-cumulative PIS and COFINS credits arising from purchases of raw materials, packaging and other materials used in the products sold in the foreign market.

IRRF (withholding income tax)

Refers to withholding income tax levied on short-term investments, which can be offset against income tax payable on profits.

General comments

Based upon previous decisions of the Board of Tax Appeals and the legal counsel's opinion, which considers that a favorable decision is almost certain, the Company and JBS Embalagens recorded the monetary adjustment of their PIS, COFINS and IPI tax credits based on SELIC (Central Bank overnight rate), in the amount of R$144,505. As of this date, the Company received R$ 28,986, and the remaining balance of R$ 115,519 is recorded in noncurrent assets, in consolidated.

The balance of construction in progress refers to investments for expansion, modernization and adaptation of meat-packing plants, aiming to maintain current and obtain new certifications required by the market. When these assets are concluded and start operating, they will be transferred to a proper property, plant and equipment account and then will be subject to depreciation.

Until December 2007, revaluations were performed on property, plant and equipment items of several Company's plants, as supported by reports issued by the specialized firm SETAPE- Serviços Técnicos de Avaliações do Patrimônio e Engenharia S/C Ltda., and offsetting entries were made to the revaluation reserve account and the provision for deferred income and social contribution taxes. The method and assumption applied to estimate the fair value of the assets were determined based on current market prices. As of March 31, 2010, revaluation of property, plant and equipment is R$ 110,922 and the provision for income and social contribution taxes is R$ 52,569. For revalued property, plant and equipment, the Company recorded accumulated depreciation of R$ 33,938.

Property, plant and equipment are tested for impairment at least annually if indications of potential impairment exist. Due to the temporary suspension of activities of the indirect subsidiary Beef Snacks, management engaged a specialized firm, SETAPE - Serviços Técnicos de Avaliações do Patrimônio e Engenharia S/C Ltda., to ascertain the net sale value, based on the fair value of assets less possible transaction costs, of land, buildings and machinery and equipment that comprise the Company's plant. A need was identified to record an impairment provision for these assets when valued at their net sales value in the amount of R$ 1,198, which was recorded as "other operating income and expenses", in the statement of operations of Beef Snacks as of December 31, 2009. Since this indirect subsidiary is a party to a joint venture in which the Company owns 50% interest, only this percentage of impairment is recorded in the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

16 Credit operations, guarantees and covenants

Revolving credit line of JBS USA - On November 5, 2008, JBS USA executed a revolving credit loan agreement allowing loans of up to US$400 million. Such agreement matures on November 5, 2011. On April 22, 2009, the agreement was amended, so that the line of credit available was increased to US$500 million.

Up to US$75 million from this line of credit is available for JBS USA. As of March 31, 2010, loans indexed to variable rates would bear interest at an annual rate equals to the PRIME rate, plus 2.25%, with total cost of 5.5%, while loans pegged to LIBOR would bear interest at an annual rate corresponding to the applicable LIBOR rate plus 3.25%. As of March 31, 2010, the mentioned rate was 0.98458%. When the credit is approved, the amounts released and pegged to LIBOR will be taken for a period of one to six months, at discretion of the agent, under the terms of the agreement.

On March 31, 2010, JBS USA was using US$315 million from the revolving lines of credit. The availability of the funds depends on the giving of guarantees linked to the assets of the wholly owned subsidiaries of JBS USA, except for Five Rivers. The assets to be given as collateral can be receivables and inventories, among others. The collateral given is of first degree.

Covenants. The revolving credit line includes financial covenants requiring fixed charge coverage ratio of at least 1.15 to 1. Fixed charge coverage ratio is defined as the EBITDA index for fixed charges. Besides, the revolving credit also establishes limits that restrict the subsidiaries of JBS USA from:

- . making investments at amounts higher than US$175 million per year;
- . incurring additional debt;
- . putting lien on goods, revenue or assets;
- . making certain loans or investments;
- . selling or disposing of assets;
- . paying certain dividends and making other payments;
- . paying in advance, cancelling or changing certain debts;
- . liquidating, consolidating, merging or acquiring the business or assets of other entities;
- . taking part in certain joint-ventures or creating certain types of subsidiaries;
- . acting in new business lines;

If default or non-compliance take place, creditors are entitled, among other things, to cancel their commitment and declare all loans matured in advance, and charge accumulated interest and fine, besides executing the guarantees.

- . putting lien on goods, revenue or assets;
- . making certain loans or investments;
- . selling or disposing of assets;

As mentioned above, the terms and conditions for Notes 2011 include covenants. Despite that, such payments can be made in certain cases, such as, (a) when there are certain obligations incurred before the issuance of the notes; (b) they are established in law; (c) when the transfer of assets takes place in the normal course of business, or under clauses usually accepted in joint venture agreements executed by the subsidiaries; or (d) when imposed by standard documents of BNDES (National Bank of Economic and Social Development).

Besides, according to Notes 2011, the Company will not be able, directly or indirectly, to declare or pay any dividends or make any distributions related to securities issued by the Company (except for debt instruments convertible or exchangeable for such amounts), if (i) there has been default in relation to the notes; (ii) the Company incurs at least US$ 1.00 of debt under the terms of the net income/EBITDA ratio test established in the indenture of the notes mentioned in the paragraph above; and (iii) the total value to be paid does not exceed 50% of the jointly net income in a certain year or when in a determined year where there is loss, the payment value does not exceed US$30 million.

Default events. The indenture of Notes 2011 establishes usual default events. They include non-compliance with or violation of terms, restrictions and other agreements contained in the mentioned instrument, besides default of other debt in case the effect leads to anticipated payment, lack of payment within the grace periods applicable of other debt waived or extended, rendering of unfavorable sentences or court orders against the issuer or its subsidiaries, and certain events related to bankruptcy and insolvency. If default takes place, the issuer or holder of at least 25% of the principal amount of the notes outstanding at the time is entitled to declare immediately payable the principal and accumulated interest on the notes.

Repurchase offer. In December 2009, the Company made an offer on the repurchase of Notes 2011, at a total approximate value of US$2.4 million. The mentioned offer was made according to the Company's obligation under the indenture that governs the notes of making an offer to buy them in case of a change in control (as defined in the indenture). The terms and conditions of Notes 2014 define various restrictions that should be observed in the respective contract.

Default events. The indenture establishes usual default events. They include non-compliance with or violation of terms, restrictions and other agreements contained in the mentioned instrument, besides default of other debt in case the effect leads to anticipated payment, lack of payment within the grace periods applicable of other debt waived or extended, rendering of unfavorable sentences or court orders against the issuer or its subsidiaries, and certain events related to bankruptcy and insolvency. If default takes place, the issuer or holder of at least 25% of the principal amount of the notes outstanding at the time is entitled to declare immediately payable the principal and accumulated interest on the notes.

The principal value of Notes 2016 should be fully paid by August 4, 2016. According to the first complementary indenture of January 31, 2007, JBS Finance Ltd. is the co-issuer.

Guarantees - The indenture that governs Notes 2016 requires that any significant subsidiaries (that is, any subsidiary that represents at least 20% of all assets or annual gross revenue of the Company, according to the most recent financial statements) guarantee all obligations of the Company established in Notes 2016. They are guaranteed by JBS Hungary Holdings Kft. (indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company), by JBS USA and its subsidiaries, JBS USA Holdings, Inc., JBS USA, LLC, Flora Produtos de Higiene e Limpeza Ltda. (subsidiary of J&F) and by Swift Beef Company. Other controlled companies of the Company (including the subsidiaries of JBS USA) can be required to guarantee the notes in the future.

Covenants. The indenture of Notes 2016 contains usual contract restrictions, restricting the Company and some of the subsidiaries from:

- . incurring additional debt, if the ratio net debt/EBITDA is higher than a determined index;
- . Putting lien on goods;
- . selling or disposing of assets;
- . paying dividends or making certain payments to shareholders;

The terms and conditions for Notes 2016 include covenants that forbid the Company and its subsidiaries, including JBS USA, to incur any debts (observing certain exceptions) unless the pro forma net debt / EBITDA ratio of the Company (as defined in the indenture) at the date the debt is incurred is lower than the following indicators, under the terms of net debt / EBITDA test: (i) until December 31, 2007, lower than 3.75/1.0; (ii) between January 1, 2008 and December 31, 2009, lower than 3.6/1.0; and (iii) starting from January 1, 2010, lower than 3.5/1.0.

Notes 2016 also establish restrictions to the Company and to its subsidiaries in the execution of certain actions, such as: (i) paying dividends or making any other payments of securities; (ii) paying debts or other obligations; (iii) giving loans or advances; or (iv) transferring its properties or assets. Despite that, such payments can be made in certain cases, such as, (a) when there are certain obligations incurred before the issuance of the notes; (b) they are established in law; (c) when the transfer of assets takes place in the normal course of business, or under clauses usually accepted clauses in joint venture agreements executed by the subsidiaries; or (d) when imposed by standard documents of BNDES.

("Frigorífico Araputanga"). As a result of the payment of the purchase price by the Company and the acknowledgement by Frigorífico Araputanga of compliance by the Company with its obligations under the purchase agreement, a public deed reflecting the transfer of title of the slaughterhouse from Frigorífico Araputanga to the Company was registered with the applicable real estate notary.

In September 2004, Frigorífico Araputanga S.A. filed a lawsuit against the Company in a state court located in the City of Araputanga, State of Mato Grosso, alleging that the Company breached the purchase agreement and seeking an injunction to prevent the Company from finalizing the transfer of the slaughterhouse and a declaratory judgment that the purchase agreement and the public deed registered with the real estate notary were null and void.

The parties are waiting for new appraisal. The first judicial expert appraisal was favorable to the company, that after evaluating the payments made by Agropecuária Friboi, the appraisal concluded that the debit was already paid. The judicial appeal number 2006.01.00.024584-7 was judged favorably to the Company, when the "TRF" Regional Federal Court declared valid the purchase title deeds of the property, object of discussion. Based on the Company's legal advisers' opinion and based on Brazilian jurisprudence management of the Company believes that their arguments will prevail and no provision was registered.

The amounts of the claim were based upon a report presented by Frigorífico Araputanga to the trial court, which appraised the value of the trademark "Frigoara" at R$ 315,000.

(Expressed in thousands of Brazilian reais)

The Company presented its defense against this lawsuit alleging that (i) the lawsuit should be analyzed and reviewed together with the lawsuit relating to the purchase of the slaughterhouse from Frigorífico Araputanga by the Company, (ii) the trademark "Frigoara" was used by the Company for a limited period of time, with the written consent and upon the request of Frigorífico Araputanga (the use of the trademark by the Company was a requirement of SUDAM to consent to the registration of the public deed contemplating the transfer of the slaughterhouse from Frigorífico Araputanga to the Company) and (iii) the amount of any damages under the lawsuit should be limited to a percentage of products sold by the Company under the trademark "Frigoara," pursuant to article 208 of the Intellectual Property Law. Almost all of the products manufactured by the Company were marketed under the trademark "Friboi." The only product marketed by the Company under the trademark "Frigoara" was minced meat, in limited amounts.

In light of the foregoing, the Company's management established a provision for losses arising from this lawsuit in the amount of R$600. Following a determination of the judge of the trial court, the lawsuit was submitted to the review of the Federal Court of Cáceres on January 17, 2007. The judge of the Federal Court of Cáceres determined that this lawsuit be joined with the lawsuit relating to the purchase of the slaughterhouse by the Company from Frigorífico Araputanga. The Federal Government will be notified to issue an opinion on the matter under discussion in this lawsuit. Based on the Company's legal counsel opinion supported by precedents of the Federal Brazilian Supreme Court (Supremo Tribunal Federal) and the Brazilian Superior Court of Justice (Superior Tribunal de Justiça), the Company's management believes that the Company will prevail in these proceedings.

e) Exchange variation risks

The risk of exchange rate variation on loans, financing, trade accounts receivable in foreign currency from exports, inventories and any other payables denominated in foreign currency, are protected through a strategy of minimizing the daily position of assets and liabilities exposed to variation in exchange rates, by engaging in hedging the foreign exchange futures at BM&F contracts SWAP (exchange rate variation by varying the CDI), seeking to bring the position to zero. The switch to protection is based on net exposure in foreign currency, seeking to reduce excessive exposure to the risks of exchange rate changes balancing their assets not denominated in Reais against its obligations not denominated in Reais, thereby protecting the Company's balance sheet. The internal controls used for risk management and coverage are made through spreadsheets and monitoring the operations performed and calculation of VAR for 1 day with a confidence interval of 99%.

The nominal values of these contracts are not recorded in the financial statements. The results of operations of the counter currency futures market, accounted and not financially settled and the daily adjustments of position of currency futures contracts on the Stock Exchange, Commodity and Forward - BM&F are recognized as income or expense in the income statement accounts.

f) Credit risks

The Company is potentially subject to credit risks related to accounts receivable, whose value is presented in Note 8. The Strategies to reduce the credit risk is based on the spread of portfolio, not having customers or business group representing over 10% of consolidated sales, credit-related financial ratios and operational health, credit limits, detailed analysis of the financial ability of customers through own federal tax number, affiliates companies and partners federal tax number, and through consult with the agencies of information and constant monitoring of customers.

The Company limits its exposure to credit risk by customer and market, through its department of credit analysis and portfolio management clients. Thus, the Company seeks to reduce the economic exposure to a particular customer and/or market that may represent significant losses to the Company in the event contractual default or implementation of sanitary or trade barrier in countries to which it exports. The market risk exposure is monitored by the Credit Committee of the Company that meets regularly with the commercial areas for analysis and control of the portfolio. Historically, there were no significant losses on its accounts receivables.

The parameters used are based on the daily flows of information monitoring operations that identify additional purchase volumes in the market, eventual contracts default, bad checks, and protests or lawsuits against their customers. Internal controls include the assignment of credit limits and configuration status granted to each individual client and automatic lock-billing in the event of default, timeouts or occurrence of restrictive information.

To minimize the credit risks of derivative contracts, the Company has a strategy to concentrate these operations in the futures market where the counterparty is the futures and commodities exchange. For these instruments, the variations of just value of derivatives occurs by daily adjustments, which are paid or received in cash daily, reducing the risk of default.

g) Purchase cattle price risk

The Company's sector is exposed to volatility in cattle prices, whose fluctuation derives from factors out of the Company's control, such as climate factors, supply levels, transportation costs, agricultural and other policies. The Company, in accordance with its policy of inventories, maintains its strategy of risk management, based on physical control, which includes anticipated purchases, combined with operations in the futures market, and reducing the daily position of purchases cattle contracts to future delivery through contracting of cattle future hedge at BM&F, aimed at resetting the position and ensuring the market price.

On March 31st 2010, the Company had open derivatives position covering 88% of its needs for cattle purchases foreseen until November 2010.

(Expressed in thousands of Brazilian reais)

The segment in which JBS USA Holdings Inc. and its subsidiaries are present is exposed to volatility in cattle prices, in grains such as corn and soybean meal and in energy, such as natural gas, electricity and diesel, whose fluctuations derive from factors out of the Company's control, such as climate, supply levels, transportation costs, political conditions, supply and demand, among others. The direct subsidiary JBS USA Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries purchase derivatives aiming at reducing price risk related to the forecast needs for purchase of these commodities for the next 12 months. The Companies may enter into long-term contracts for specific commodities in case necessary. On March 31, 2010, the direct subsidiary JBS USA Holdings, Inc. and its subsidiaries had open derivatives positions covering 6.8% of its cattle purchase needs forecast until June 2011, 18.5% of its hogs needs forecast until March 2011, 10.8% of its grains needs and 53.1% of its natural gas needs until March 2011.

The parameters for risk reduction are based on the constant monitoring of the commodities exposure, considering values and terms negotiated, comparing that with the budget of the risk management team for the year. For these commodities fundamental to the business, such as live cattle, hogs, grains and energy ("fundamental commodities"), the stop loss for a trader ("Stop Loss") is assumed to be 25% of his budget for the year, calculated using the result of 10 days of operations and independent from the result accumulated in the current exercise of each trader ("calculating stop loss"). Each trader will be authorized to two "stop loss" in every 12-month period.

During these "stop loss", the trader will have to close his open positions and stay out of this transaction for two weeks or more, in case judged necessary by the financial committee. In case the loss exceeds the 25% authorized, as previously mentioned, this committee will have a formal conversation with the trader that exceeded the limit, analysing if it will be appropriate to extend an additional "stop loss", reviewing the VAR limits and margins for this trader or if the employment contract will be terminated.

In the first quarter 2010, the Company and its subsidiaries recognized R$ 115.047 (R$ 126.864 in March 31 2009) in the cost of goods sold, resulting from the fluctuation of fair value of these commodities instruments and of settlements of these instruments that took place in the period. The fair value of these derivatives, in March 31, 2010, are registered in the assets and liabilities, for R$19.282 and R$ 43.398 (R$ 9.123 and R$ 10.137 in December 31 2009), respectively.
